

FOO CHOW RIOTERS RAZED THE MISSION

REPORT OF CHINESE RIOTERS CONFIRMED.

One United States Cruiser Sent to the Scene at Last—Diplomatic Complications Between America and Great Britain Threatened by Nicaragua Canal Movements.

London, Aug. 22.—Dispatches this afternoon confirm the news of an attack on the American missions in Foo Chow. Captain Newell, with the cruiser Detroit, has gone to that place. The Foo Chow attacked by a large and infuriated mob armed with various weapons. The chapel and school were wrecked and four native scholars were fatally wounded, while the foreign teacher escaped. There is a strong anti-foreign feeling in Foo Chow, which is spreading among the populace, who are parading with cries of "Drive out the foreign devils."

England and the United States.

London, Aug. 22.—The St. James' Gazette, in a leading editorial, asks the question: "How does Great Britain stand with the United States in regard to the Nicaraguan canal?" Pursuing the subject the paper adds: "As far as can be seen we are heading straight for a crisis, and there will be either a diplomatic deadlock between the two countries or an English surrender of important treaty rights."

Rosebery May Be Deposed.

London, Aug. 22.—The Standard (conservative) says: "There is a movement among the radicals to change the leadership of the party. It is the belief that having a peer for a leader militates against success. We understand that the Earl of Rosebery will not retire unless deposed by a vote. The party in the house of commons has elected J. W. Lowther, member for Penrith, chairman. He was under secretary for foreign affairs in 1891-92 and must not be confounded with the Right Honorable James Lowther."

Flooded with Counterfeit Money.

London, Aug. 22.—A Singapore letter to the Times says that consequent upon the legislative retention of the silver guilder at the old value, which is about double the intrinsic value in the Netherlands, coining factories have been established in China, and the export of guilders thence yields a handsome profit. It is estimated that two million of such counterfeit coins are already in circulation and the evil already threatens to increase.

Railroad Records Broken.

London, Aug. 22.—The London & Northwestern Railway company's new fast train, which left Huston station at 8 o'clock last evening, arrived at Aberdeen at 4:58 o'clock this morning, having covered the distance of 540 miles in the shortest time on record.

Jute Workers Strike.

Edinburgh, Aug. 22.—The strike of the jute workers in Dundee is spreading rapidly. Thirteen thousand workers went out to-day in addition to the 7,000 or more who struck yesterday. The strikers are very orderly and are giving the police no trouble.

Will Build a New Yacht.

London, Aug. 22.—The Evening News claims to have information that the prince of Wales is likely to build a yacht which will be a better boat than the Britannia.

Arrest Russian Officers.

London, Aug. 22.—The Daily Telegraph's Vienna correspondent says that two Russian staff officers descended in a balloon near Jaroslav, Austria, where they were arrested.

Liabilities Were Enormous.

Genoa, Aug. 22.—The official statement of the assets of Bingen Bros., bankers, who recently failed, shows them to be $3,500,000. The liabilities are $14,000,000.

Shortage Is Admitted.

New York, Aug. 22.—The World publishes a special from Washington to the effect that the report of Expert Myers of the fifth auditor's office, which has just been presented to Secretary Carlisle, shows that Ainsworth R. Spofford, the venerable librarian of congress, is behind in his accounts owing to bad methods of bookkeeping. In an interview Mr. Spofford admits the shortage and offers to make it good, but denies any attempt at robbery.

Rich Find of Gold.

Lander, Wyo., Aug. 22.—A wonderfully rich placer find is reported on Gold creek on the Continental divide at the south end of Wind river range. The dirt runs $50 to the yard. It is not a gravel bed and experts say the gold comes from some wonderfully rich lead beds towards the mountains. The miners are fairly tumbling over each other in their efforts to discover the source of the gold.

For a Change of Venue.

Hannibal, Mo., Aug. 22.—Counsel for Dr. and Mrs. Hearne, who are in jail in Palmyra, charged with the murder of Mrs. Hearne's former husband, Amos J. Stillwell, will ask for a change of venue. No efforts will be made to secure the release of the prisoners under a writ of habeas corpus.

CROKER TO RETURN.

Great Tammany Leader Will Resume Control of the Organization.
New York, Aug. 22.—The World says that Richard Croker is slated for reappointment to his old position in Tam-

WE WILL TAKE A HAND.

American Consul Instructed to Investigate Turkish Outrages.

Constantinople, Aug. 22.—The United States consul at Beyrut, Thomas R. Gibson, has been instructed to proceed to Tarsus in order to open an inquiry into the attack recently made upon the American college there. It is stated the sultan has decided to issue a decree Aug. 31 announcing general reforms throughout the empire. The tendency of this reply to the powers, however, is more retrograde than progressive, as, for instance, Christians are not admitted to be eligible to hold the post of Vali, in spite of the fact that Christian valis have existed for years past.

Millions for a Half-Breed.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 22.—Attorney Grant I. Rosenzweig returned yesterday from Kaskaskia, Ill., where he has taken thirty depositions in support of the claim of Antoine Gilles that he is the only begotten son of the late William Gilles, and the son-in-law to the $2,000,000 estate left by him. William Gilles lived his early days in Kaskaskia, and came to Kansas City when it was a trading post. He became wealthy here and died in 1870, leaving his estate to Mary Troost. Since then the property has fallen into many hands. Antoine Gilles is a half-breed Indian, who lives in Indian Territory. The suit will be tried at the fall term of court.

After the Nebraska Bandits.

North Platte, Neb., Aug. 22.—Sheriff Miller and a posse are on the trail of the men who robbed Union Pacific train No. 8 Tuesday night near Brady Island. The special train arrived there at 4 a. m. and immediately the sheriff picked up the trail, which led directly north. The men are supposed to be three in number, as the imprint of the horses' feet indicate. Express Messenger Thomas McCarl says the robbers did not get over $100 for their trouble. Conductor Flynn thinks that the escape of the fireman with the engine alarmed the robbers and caused them to leave before they had completed their work.

A Thirteen-Year-Old Hero.

Greenup, Ill., Aug. 22.—The 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hutsill, four miles west of this city, narrowly escaped death in a burning barn yesterday. George Smith, 13 years old, rescued the child, burning himself badly about the hands. The Hutsill child may live, but is in a critical condition. He was at play in the barn when it caught fire. The building and contents, property of H. Bright, were entirely consumed. Two horses burned to death.

Socialist Processions Forbidden.

London, Aug. 22.—A dispatch to the Times from Berlin says the Vorwaerts publishes a confidential circular from the president of Schleswig to his subordinates instructing them to prohibit socialist processions as far as the law permits and also holding them responsible, in view of recent indiscretions, for keeping the ordinance secret.

New Yorks Change Managers.

New York, Aug. 22.—Another change has been made in the management of the New York Base-ball club. Jack Doyle no longer holds the position of manager, having been succeeded by Harvey Watkins, who, acting on instructions from President Freedman, assumed the reins yesterday. Doyle's successor as captain of the club is Third Baseman Davis.

Miners to Get More Money.

Houghton, Mich., Aug. 22.—Quincy, Wolverine and Kearsarge copper mines announce a 10 per cent raise in wages, effective from August 1. The other six active mines in the district have previously announced an advance from the same date. The increase in Houghton county will amount to nearly $50,000 a month. The advance was voluntary on the part of the mine owners.

Honolulu Ratifies Contract.

Honolulu, Aug. 14, per steamer Australia to San Francisco.—The senate and house have ratified the cable contract made by President Dole with Z. S. Spaulding, who will ask the next congress for an annual subsidy of $250,000.

ILLINOIS MOB OUT SEEKING A NEGRO

HE SHOT TWO MILITIA MEN TODAY

Most Atrocious Crime at New Richmond Expiated Without Delay—Fate of the Culprit Amply Deserved According to the Circumstances Reported.

Lincoln, Ill., Aug. 22.—Lynchers are looking for Frank Phoenix, colored, who, this morning shot S. W. Blackford and Matt Rodgers, of the Illinois National Guard.

New Richmond, O., Aug. 22.—At 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon a mob took Noah Anderson, colored, from the jail here, and hanged him for the murder of Franklin Fridman, nearly 80 years old, and president of the First National Bank of this place.

Mr. Fridman was among the wealthiest men in Clermont county. He owned a number of farms and lived at Clermontville, about two miles from New Richmond. He was driving into New Richmond shortly after noon yesterday, when he stopped at one of his houses. Hitting his horse at the doorway, he went into an adjoining field, where he was suddenly attacked by Noah Anderson, a muscular negro, who had no weapon but his hands. With these he quickly bore the aged banker to the earth, and then, clutching his throat with the power of a demon, he literally choked his helpless victim to death. When satisfied that the man was dead, Anderson fled. Soon the prostrate man was borne to the house, and found to be past all help. He was already dead.

Fridman came from Germany and was a boilermaker. In 1840 he moved to Clermontville, Clermont county, O., where he had ever since been engaged in mercantile, manufacturing and banking pursuits, and had been until the time of his death president of the Fridman Lumber Company, president of the First National Bank and president of the Shain-Roberts Furniture Company, all of New Richmond, O. He leaves eleven children living. He is estimated to be worth about $1,000,000. Anderson came to New Richmond on a shanty-boat some months ago. He claimed to be a paperhanger by occupation.

BIG BUILDING FALLS.

Lucky Escape from Death in a Chicago Amusement Resort.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 22.—At 11:15 o'clock last night the Coliseum, the gigantic amusement building of Chicago, fell with a crash. It was within a week of its final completion. But an hour before 400 workmen were hurrying on the building. It was too early for the large morning shift that began at 3 o'clock, and fortunately no one was injured. The loss, it is believed, will reach $125,000. The cause of the accident could only be conjectured last night. The Coliseum was designed in Italian Renaissance style. It was to be 770 feet in length by 300 feet wide. This great area of 240,000 square feet, or nearly five and one-half acres, was to be inclosed and covered with a great roof. The seating capacity was calculated at 40,000. The building was to have been opened Sept. 2.

Debs' Staff Released from Jail.

Woodstock, Ill., Aug. 22.—Hogan, Goodwin, Rogers, Burns, Elliott and Keliher of Debs' staff have completed their terms of sentence and left for Chicago this morning. Debs has three months yet to serve. There release will mark a new departure in the work of organizing railway employees. District headquarters will be established in all the large railway centers throughout the country. Since their imprisonment 156 local unions that were shattered by the strike of last summer have been reorganized and 27 new ones instituted.

Nebraska Democrats Meet.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 22.—The Democratic State convention convenes in Omaha to-day. Since all opponents of free silver in the party will hold a state convention Sept. 5, it is conceded there will be no fight along this line. The call provides for 813 delegates, and Chairman Smith expects that at least 700 accredited delegates will attend. The convention meets at 2 o'clock.

New York Horse Racers Discouraged.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 22.—Louis Ezell's 4-year-old racer Rapatap, by imp. Rapture—Wanton, valued at $5,000, while running alone in field late yesterday afternoon fell and broke her neck. The famous Buffalo Trotting association had decided to dissolve and cut its park up into building lots. Prohibitory betting legislation was the cause of the dissolution of the track. Horse breeders and owners fear the same cause may possibly place a headstone over the grave of the Saratoga Racing association.

Old River Craft Burned.

New Orleans, Aug. 22.—The steamer John D. Scully, one of the oldest crafts plying southern waters, was destroyed by fire while tied to the bank at Carrollton last night. She was owned by Captain M. N. Wood, an old-timer, well known in river circles, and was usually run as an independent packet during the busy season in the tributaries and bayous of the Mississippi river.

SALVATION ARMY FIGHTS MADISON

PAYMENT OF $1 FINE TO BE CONTESTED.

Principle Will Be Tested in the Higher Courts—Martin Joyce Kicked Into An Unrecognizable Mass Near Baraboo—Hayward is Against Railway Bonds.

Madison, Aug. 22.—The Salvation Army will appeal their case to the circuit court. They were fined for collecting crowds on the streets at their public meeting. The fine was but one dollar, but the army will take the case up to decide the point. The city has not refused to let them march or hold meetings on any but the main business streets.

Kicked Into a Shapeless Mass.

Baraboo, Aug. 22.—Martin Joyce, a young farmer near here, fell in front of a wagon he was driving, and was dragged and kicked by the horses into an unrecognizable mass.

No Railway Bonds to Issue.

Hayward, Aug. 22.—No vote will be taken in Sawyer county regarding bonds for the Minneapolis & Ashland railway. Public sentiment is against it. The railway has withdrawn its proposition.

Starvation in Sight.

Black River Falls, Wis., Aug. 22.—Owing to the failure of the blueberry crop, which usually furnishes them a living, the Wisconsin Winnebago Indians are threatened with starvation this winter. The Indians are hard up, and have already contracted obligations with the merchants, which will exhaust their annuity to be paid them on Nov. 1. There seems to be no likelihood of their getting any interest on their principal of $900,000, and they are entirely without resources to keep them through the winter.

Charged with a Grave Crime.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 22.—County Physician John H. Otto was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Richard V. Fischer, who charges him with having performed a criminal operation on his daughter, Paulina Fischer, which resulted in her death. Dr. Otto was released on bail of $3,000.

FRANCE MUST FREE WALLER

United States Authority Said to Be Formulating an Imperative Demand.

Washington, Aug. 22.—There is good authority for the statement that a peremptory demand will be made by the United States for the release of ex-Consul John Waller of Tamatave, and that satisfactory indemnity will be required for his arrest and imprisonment, with a probable request for a commission to determine Waller's rights in Madagascar. The discussion of the case between the French and American diplomats has reached a point where it is said there is little else for the United States to do, owing to the fact that repeated requests for a copy of the charges and testimony upon which Waller was convicted have not been complied with by the French government. The dilatory action of France in this matter is regarded as indicating that the French government has a poor case and will be unable to resist the demands made by the United States for the restoration of Waller to liberty and indemnity for his losses. A condition which makes the delay of France more aggravating is the fact that the department is aware of the serious illness of Waller in prison and that his further confinement is harmful to his health. International questions generally move slowly, but the delay in producing papers and testimony in the case of Waller has been of an exasperating kind, and has resulted in sharp pressure by United States officials to bring about a settlement, the belief being that a great deal of the delay has been largely unnecessary. Some of the reports which have been received at the department indicate that the treatment of Waller has been unjust and his arrest and trial a breach of international comity. Enough is known regarding the negotiations to justify the statement that the department is confident it will result in the release of Mr. Waller, with indemnity for his imprisonment and the restoration of his property rights. There is also authority for the statement that the department feels assured Waller's bare release could have been secured before now, but it was felt that this would be accomplished at the risk of losing indemnity for imprisonment and protection of Mr. Waller in his property rights in Madagascar. As the money interests involved are placed by no one in the department at less than $1,000,000, the case has been handled on the theory that it was better that Mr. Waller should continue to endure his incarceration for a few months than risk losing his claim.

AT WASHINGTON PARK.

Attendance at the Big Trotting Meeting Causes Alarm.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—The fact that women were admitted free increased the attendance at Washington Park materially yesterday, there being the largest crowd present since the meeting opened. The promoters of the meet, however, have sustained a loss of $1,500 a day on each day's racing so far, and claim that a successful season cannot be given without betting being allowed. The breeding of fine horses throughout the state will soon be a dead industry, it is claimed, unless the present anti-betting law is repealed. Summaries of yesterday's races: Champion stakes, 2:24 class, for foals of 1891, trotting, guaranteed purse, $1,500; Dentine, b. g., by Aberdeen—Rena S., by Cyclone, 1; Spinaway, b. m., 2; Billy Parks, b. c., 3. Time—2:14½, 2:13½, 2:17.

2:40 class, trotting, purse $1,000; Judge Rice, blk. g., by Belmont Wilkes, dam by Gilbert, 1; Turquoise, b. m., 2; Royana, br. m., 3. Time—2:19½, 2:23½, 2:20½, 2:25.

2:20 class, pacing, purse $1,000; Earlmont, b. h., by Belmont—Lady Lyle, by George Wilkes, 1; Emma Wilkes, blk. m., 2; May Murphy, b. m., 3. Time—2:13½, 2:14½, 2:16½.

To-day Joe Patchen (2:04) and John R. Gentry (2:03½), both of whom are now aspirants to the pacing throne left vacant by the deposition of Robert J. meet. Much interest has been manifested in this race, and if it is possible to draw a crowd under the present conditions, it should be in attendance to-day.

New York, Aug. 22.—Eight thousand garment workers are idle today.

JAMES E. CAMPBELL

Nominated for Governor by the Democrats of Ohio—The Platform.

Springfield, Ohio, Aug. 22.—Ex-Gov. James E. Campbell was nominated for governor by acclamation yesterday by the Ohio democratic convention. Mr. Campbell protested and said he was depleted financially and otherwise unable to make the race. The motion to nominate, however, was put and carried.

EX-GOV. CAMPBELL.

with a great whirl of enthusiasm and the chair declared Mr. Campbell the nominee for governor. The full ticket is as follows: Governor, James E. Campbell; lieutenant-governor, John B. Peaslee; state auditor, James W. Knott; state treasurer, William B. Sholer; supreme judge, William T. Mooney; attorney-general, George A. Fairbanks; board of public works, Harry B. Keefer; clerk supreme court, J. W. Cruikshank.

It was 10:30 when the chairman of the state committee, M. A. Smalley, called the convention to order. Prayer was offered, after which Senator C. S. Brice was introduced as the presiding officer of the convention. He commended Cleveland's policy and urged democrats to continue their fight along the lines mapped out at the white house. The majority report of the committee on resolutions was adopted, 19 to 2. Both President Cleveland and Senator Brice are endorsed. The money plank is as follows: "We hold to the use of both gold and silver as the standard money of the country and to the coinage of both gold and silver without discrimination against either metal or charge for mintage; but the dollar unit of coinage of both metals must be of equal intrinsic and exchangeable value, or be adjusted by international agreement, or by such safeguards of legislation as shall insure the maintenance of the parity of the two metals and the equal power of every dollar at all times in the payment of debts, and we demand that the paper currency shall be kept at par with and redeemable in such coin. We insist upon this policy as especially necessary for the protection of farmers and laboring classes, the first and most defenseless victims of unstable money and fluctuating currency." This is the plank adopted in the platform of the last democratic national convention.

Gen. Findlay of Crawford county introduced the following, which was passed: "We view with alarm the invasion of one of the republics of this country by Great Britain, on the plea of collection of debt, and endorse the Monroe doctrine."

With a series of resolutions of thanks the convention at 2:40 adjourned, the nominations having all been made in about half an hour.

Fifty Thousand Dollar Loss Caused by Flames in the Grand Rockland—Planing Mill Blaze in Denver Results in $67,000 Damage—Seeking Gumby Victims.

Nyack, N. Y., Aug. 22.—The Grand Rockland hotel at Congers burned early this morning. The loss is fully fifty thousand dollars. Guests escaped in their night clothing, and no baggage was saved.

Denver, Aug. 22.—There was another big fire today. McPhee & McGinnity's planing mill burned with a loss of $67,000. Three more bodies have been taken out of the ruins of the Gumby hotel, making the total number twenty. Of the seven taken out since Tuesday four have been identified as A. M. Munroe of Colorado Springs, Colo., formerly of Carthage, Ohio, and Lizzie Lager, Louise Reinhuber and Emma Millethaler, chambermaids. The other three have not been positively identified, but one is believed to be the body of Peter Gumby. The body of Gen. Charles Adams was taken out at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Insurance matters are complicated by the mayor ordering the torch applied to the ruins of the building.

SERIOUS FOREST FIRES.

Immense Damage Seems Likely to Happen in New Jersey.

Toms River, N. J., Aug. 22.—The forest fires which started near this place on Sunday and to which but little attention was paid now threaten serious loss. Last night a strong northwest wind blew and the flames were driven toward the farms along the Manchester road and threatened for hours to reach the farm buildings. The farmers, aided by volunteers, fought the fire all night. Valuable timber was burned, but the efforts of the fighters were entirely directed toward saving the crops and buildings. If the wind holds it will carry the flames into the extensive cranberry bogs, which are dry and will burn.

Egg Harbor City, N. J., Aug. 21.—The great forest fires near this place are still burning and have more headway than ever before, although hundreds are fighting the flames. The flames are now headed directly toward McKee City and there are many houses in the path.

Illinois Farmers' Institute.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 22.—The State Farmers' Institute, created by an act of the last general assembly, met here yesterday and organized. F. M. Palmer, of Clinton, was elected president.

At the pier they were received by Miss Wiggins and Miss Nash, assisted by the latter's guest, Miss Lamb of Fond du Lac. Few seats were vacant in the Columbia when all were stowed away, and so expansive was the jollity that prevailed that when Crystal Springs was reached even the park seemed to overflow.

There was dancing from 8:30 until midnight to the music of Smith's orchestra; there were choruses to make night melodious, and for the more sedate there were card tables under the trees and in the big sitting room. Light refreshments were served about 10 o'clock, Shurtliff being in charge of the catering. Mrs. S. B. Smith and Mrs. M. G. KATE PHALLAMONT WON A RACE

She Defeated a Good Field at Independence—Other Horse Gossip.

Kate Phallamont won the money for 2:18 trotters at Independence yesterday, after losing the first and fourth heats to Queen Alfred and Ben B. respectively. Kate's best time was 2:12 1/2. The Chicago Tribune says that it was Kate Phallamont's race, but in playing with Selena F. to give her a chance at the money, the race came very near going to Ben B. The last heat was Ben B.'s, but was given to Kate Phallamont, owing to two breaks by Ben. If the Tribune tells the truth the "intense hatred" that sprang up between Drivers Colby and Dunbar over the much discussed Janesville race seems to have cooled enough to let them work together the first time they meet in another race. The Independence field was nearly the same as here. At the Janesville track Kate outfooted Selena F. Ben B. and Queen Alfred going in 2:14. At Independence she defeated Ben B., Queen Alfred and Selena F. they standing in the order named. Her best time was 2:12 1/2.

Tom Ogden, the bay pacer who started in the 2:10 class here, is "rounding up" in good shape. Tom was unplaced in the Janesville race, his best performance being third in 2:10. At Independence, however, he defeated Badger, Spinaxetta and others reeling off three heats in 2:07, 2:08 1/2, and 2:09 1/2.

Probably few Janesville people realized that they were watching a horse that would become famous when they saw Fido win the 2:10 class pacing purse here, in straight heats and comparatively slow time. Fido is one of the speediest sidewheelers that ever wore harness. His record is 2:04 1/2 and he made that time in a race. He is now fit to go with John R. Gentry, Joe Patchen and Robert J. and will meet these three worthies together with Reubenstein and others at New York next week. He has never gone as fast as he can, but he'll have to let out all the links that he can when he meets that field.

The Veteran.

It was a battered warrior,
Of limping gate and slow,
Who hobbled up the sunlit street,
With every look of woe.

"Oh, tell us, pray," they cried to him,
"Where you at, famed Yalu,
Or was it in the Hancock war
They run the boots in you?"

"Or did you gain that shattered leg,
That comminuted jaw,
In wrestling with the keen, serrate
And swift revolving saw?"

The battered warrior shook his head,
And winked the eye not shut,
"Nay, nay," said he; "I played ball
In the town of Terry Hut."

THE FUEL QUESTION AGAIN AT THE TOP

PRICES FOR COAL WILL NOT BE REDUCED.

Dealers Who Are Responsible for the Milwaukee Cut Said to be Disposing of Old Stock—Cause of the Reduction as Told by a Well Posted Retailer.

This morning a report gained circulation that coal dealers of the city would cut prices. Inquiry at the different yards revealed that there was nothing in it. The report was no doubt circulated on account of the Milwaukee coal dealers slaughtering prices on hard coal and in fact demoralizing the market.

Several months ago the coal yards of Uhrig & Co., at Milwaukee, were damaged by fire and in order that sheds might be rebuilt the stock of coal was offered at $4.75 per ton. Other dealers in the Cream City followed the cut and are now advertising coal at $4.75 per ton.

A well posted dealer said to a reporter this morning: "The coal being sold at Milwaukee for $4.75 per ton is old and rusty having been in the yards two years. Everybody knows that coal that has been in a yard one year depreciates about 9 per cent in value on a ton. It is cheaper for Janesville people to pay $6.25 a ton for their coal than it is for the Milwaukee people to pay $4.75 for the old and rusty stock. This coal at Milwaukee is selling for less than the cost, with cost of freight and handling added."

It had been whispered about that clubs would send to Milwaukee for their coal on the ground that it could be purchased, shipped and placed in the coal bins here at $5.75 a ton. A dealer said that he hoped it would be done, for the reason that just one experience with the coal being sold by the Milwaukee firms would forever sicken Janesville citizens from ever buying it again.

MAUD MULLER AND TRILBY.

Maud Muller had a Trilby foot,
But she was not a Trilby.
A very different girl was she,
And so her story will be.
Sweet Maud was dressed in tattered gown,
Trilby in "altogether."
For Trilby posed in studios
And Maud out in the weather.

Poor Maud, ashamed of her bare feet,
Her blouses tried to smother,
While Trilby first put one foot out
And then stuck out the other.
Love came to both of them one day,
Which they both had to smother.
The judge he smiled and rode away,
Billie went with his mother.

Then both these girls were hypnotized,
Poor Maud by a farmer,
While Trilby fell beneath the spell
Of a strange charmer.

Poor Maud she sighed, "It might have been!"
But Trilby knew it should not,
So bravely tried to let him go,
And sing although she could not.

Alas for judge and gifted boy,
The darling little Billie!
Strangers evermore to joy
Their fate they bore quite illly.
The world too, sighs with secret pain,
And wishes, "Will he, will he."
The judge had married rustic Maud
And Trilby little Billie!

CONSCIENCE MONEY.

During my residence at the Villa Medicea—from 1871 to 1874—we were constantly hearing of highway robbery, and even of downright brigandage, out on the Campagna and up in the mountains. Sometimes rumor would bring the marauders to the very gates of the city, and at last the bandits were reported to have ventured into the town itself. The report did not exaggerate the reality.

Happily none of our party fell a victim to these attempts save one, who was stopped in open day by the side of Santa Maria Maggiore, forced back to the wall and "held up" with half a dozen knives gleaming in a semicircle around his throat.

He was relieved of his watch and gave up his purse, but beyond the loss of these articles suffered no injury. The watch he subsequently recovered, and the purse contained only a few francs. Simon Backer always was a lucky dog.

There was at this time, in the mountains near Cervara, a bandit whose activity and audacity had made him a terror to the district for several months past. Emboldened by the smiles with which fortune favored him, he grew daily more daring. He had ventured into Subiaco and carried off prisoners under the walls of Tivoli. The peasants never failed to cross themselves when they spoke of Fontana. He was said to be not more than 20 at most, of a strikingly handsome presence, and to a courage that was indomitable he added the strength of a Hercules.

For nearly half a year this fellow and his band of cutthroats held possession of the Campagna. The attempts made from time to time to take him always came to nothing. Now it would be the royal and now the pontifical gendarmes that would go after him, but the carabinieri seemed never to arrive in time. There was always something to delay their departure or obstruct their march.

The Campagna is a veritable land of Goshen for a brigand who knows his business. Everywhere there are grottoes, caverns, grass grown ruins, abandoned quarries and broad belts of forest, untrodden for generations. A few villages, lost in these solitudes, are united to the outer world by a track which is unworthy the name of road and bound together by footpaths only recognizable by those accustomed to use them.

The child trotting from one to the other with a cheese for the grandmother, or returning with water from the distant fountain, would frequently fall in with the "wolf."

This "wolf" was Fontana disguised. With some cheap trinkets, perhaps a necklace of beads or a silver bracelet, he would entice the child to chatter, wheedling out of her who sold his beads or disposed of his crop; inquiring if this one had received the bequest expected or that other been paid the legacy left him. And how could the frightened child refuse to answer when the "wolf" suddenly transformed himself into a handsome gentleman, with soft manners and hands filled with pretty things?

In one of these villages lived a man named Beppo Guerra. It was he himself who told me this story. He filled the triple office of notary, apothecary and mayor.

At the close of the winter fairs held in Rome and the neighborhood Guerra had committed the great impudence of bringing back with him a large sum of money—several thousand francs. Fontana got wind of this.

One evening, when everybody in the village was asleep and Beppo was finishing his pipe down stairs, some shots were fired at the door. No warning had been given; no noise had been heard. Before Beppo could recover himself a ball crashed through the window and tore a long splinter from the ceiling joist, the door was burst open, and Fontana entered, followed by several members of his band.

Terrified by the noise, Mme Guerra rushed to the room to save her husband, and the children ran to seek protection near their mother.

Unmoved by the entreaties of the wife, the ruffians leveled their pistols at the heads of the frightened family.

"Twenty thousand francs is what we want of you," shouted Fontana. "Come, there's no time to waste. I don't want any blubbering and I'm not going to listen to any tale pitching. Hand it over quickly. I'll give you five minutes to make up your mind."

Resistance was useless. To call for help was to seek sudden death and bring down vengeance on the heads of little ones. Beppo understood the situation exactly.

"I have not such a sum," said he coldly.

"Then give us what you have. The rest can be sent after you. We shall take you with us as security for payment, but no harm will befall you if your folks don't make fools of themselves and wake up the gentlemen in frogged coats and cock's feathers. When the last son's paid, you'll be set free."

They rummaged the house, turning the place upside down, but found no more than the 12,000 francs Beppo had given them.

Guerra was immediately bound and gagged, a bandage was placed over his eyes, and they were going to lead him away when his wife, throwing herself at the feet of the brigand chief, cried in accents of terror and despair:

"Agostino! Agostino!"—it was the Christian name of Fontana—"have mercy. Don't take him away. You know as well. Take the money, but leave us Beppo."

"No, no! Impossible. Go to the devil!"

But the poor creature clung to him the tighter, seizing the folds of his cloak with both hands.

"Agostino!" she cried again. "You remember me. Many's the time I played with you when you were little."

"Go to the devil, I say. Make up the sum required and you shall have back your husband. In four days come alone to the spring by the marble quarry and we'll settle the account."

And in less time than it takes to wink, the brigands hurried off Beppo, leaving wife and children overwhelmed with disaster.

To make complaint and set the authorities to work was simply to put a bullet through the head of the prisoner. His wife knew this only too well. She knew also that it would be necessary to meet Fontana on the day appointed, at the place named.

She went alone—that was the condition—carrying with her every penny that she had been able to raise. Her eyes were swollen from want of sleep and reddened by much weeping.

In the vicinity of the quarry all was quiet. Everything about her spoke of peace, of tranquil days and silent nights. Only her own soul was in agitation.

Glimping upward she saw Fontana descending from above with the rapidity of a pebble detached by a pick. He came toward her with a comical air, like a fellow well pleased with himself for having just made a good stroke in a doubtful business.

"Beppo carries himself as high as the cupola of St. Peter's. We play cards together to help pass the time. Have you brought the money?"

"Not the whole of it, but surely this is enough—5,000!"

Fontana frowned under his eyebrows and answered roughly: "No; I said 20,000. Adieu!"

"Wait, wait," cried the poor woman, seeking to detain him. "I have not been able to get more in the time, but I will go at once to Orbatello, and his relatives there will give me what's lacking. The day after tomorrow I shall have it."

"Be it so, then. After tomorrow, here at this place. Thou knowest the rest."

Two days later the wife of Guerra was standing on the same spot, and Fontana, with the same comical air, was counting coins into his hat. The woman had brought with her the complement, and the bandit, having satisfied himself as to the amount, made her a low bow.

"This evening Beppo will return to his family. Allow me to wish you a last adieu."

On reaching his quarters in the mountains Fontana cut the cords which bound his prisoner to a stone of enormous size, threw the money and notes into his hat and shouted abruptly to his comrades:

"Here's the remainder. Beppo is free."

Presently four of you will blindfold him and lead him as far as the stone heap beyond the quarry. From there he can find his way home. If any one does him the smallest injury, I shall know how to punish it. Remember, you are all responsible for his safety."

Then, sending the men away, he was left alone with Guerra.

"Listen to me, Beppo. I have always had a friendly feeling for you and yours. If I had only myself to consider, I would never have done this. But I have with me two or three hot headed rascals, who know that you're pretty 'easy' and heard that you had brought back a big sum from the city. It was impossible to hold them off. You don't know these fellows. I cannot always do what I would, but when an affair's been decided on I usually continue to be master. Ah! When I saw your wife—who nursed me and taught me to walk—it gave me a nasty twinge. But if I had yielded we should both have been knocked down and beaten to death where we stood."

"Pardon me, Beppo, and pray accept these few pieces—150 francs. Take them as conscience money. Buy something for the wife and children as a souvenir of Fontana, who begs their forgiveness for the injury he has been forced to do them."

A few hours later, when the bandage was removed from his eyes, Beppo found himself at a spot distant about three kilometers from his own house.

Not a great while after this occurrence the band was dispersed and Fontana himself shot dead in a skirmish with the carabinieri.

Such was the terror which he had inspired throughout the district that the authorities, suspecting his death would be doubted by the populace, had the corpse lashed to the back of an ass, and for three days the animal was led through the principal villages in the Campagna.

Beppo Guerra never said what he did with the 150 francs which Fontana desired to have expended in presents for madam and her children. Most probably the wish was respected. Superstition has struck her roots deep in the south.

Within two months of Guerra's release Fontana was a dead man, and Beppo would scarcely dare to "cheat" the dead out of his "conscience money."—London Sun.

It Makes Us Shudder.

To think of chills and fever. But when we really have it—supposing us to be so unfortunate—our frames undergo a series of shocks which bear a close analogy to those produced by an earthquake. Roasted next, we are drenched by perspiration afterward. Truly a delectable condition of things. But how easy to remedy and how speedy! The certain means of relief is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Tested as well where malaria is prevalent in its most virulent forms, as where it takes on a milder guise, it has proved itself to possess both a remedial and preventive efficacy of the highest order. In South America, Guatemala, Mexico and the Isthmus of Panama no less than throughout the North American continent, its success as a means of forestalling and relieving malarial disease has been unparalleled. Use the Bitters for dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness and kidney trouble, nervousness and debility.

Mr. A. A. Snyder, superintendent of the poor farm, Wrentham, Co., Ia. says: "Last winter Mr. Robert Leach used two boxes of De Witt's Witch Hazel on his leg. Had been under care of physicians for months without obtaining relief. C. D. Stevens.

says the St. Louis Journal of Agriculture in an editorial about No-To-Bac the famous tobacco habit cure. No Sour Apples In Our Advertising.

Our announcements invite and our offerings do not disappoint. Small meagre and inconsequent lots of goods are not advertised. When quantities are likely to be disappointing we tell you. Herein is the secret of the great success of the Wednesday Sales.

This week's special was a case in point, and it is doubtful if Janesville ever saw livelier selling than was done with the

Outing Flannels,

and if any of the children, as well as the old folks are not provided with Flannel Night Robes, when the time comes, then it's not the fault of the women folks, several hundred of whom were buyers at this sale; six cents a yard for goods usually a shilling---that's the reason.

TOO MUCH TIME WASTED.

There is no good reason why a whole summer should be spent in attending public meetings and listening to repetitions of familiar arguments. The people keep themselves posted upon current issues, and do not heed this prolonged special instruction in order to learn how they ought to vote. It is true that a certain degree of activity and enthusiasm is advantageous to parties as parties, and there can be no objection to a reasonable amount of stump speaking and other forms of electioneering, but as a rule, this sort of thing is much overdone in this country, and considerably less of it would be fully as effective so far as practical results are concerned.

This is true not only as to state campaigns, but also as to those of a national character. In former times, when newspapers were scarce, and means of communication limited, there was some justification for long campaigns. But the conditions are different now, and there is no excuse for keeping the country in a tumult of political controversy from spring until fall. The American people are a busy people, and can not spare the time to carry on a campaign of six months when one of sixty days would answer the purpose just as well.

KEEP THE QUALITY UP

The erection of new creameries in Rock county and the enlargement of old ones suggests that if properly managed there is no reason to fear overproduction and proper management will consist in manufacturing a product that will be noted in the highest market quotations.

Rock county butter is now quoted at about the same price which Elgin butter brings, and in the estimation of experts is just as excellent a grade, lacking only the sentimental value of the older name. In this high standard lies the secret of permanent success. There is always a demand for the best grade of creamery products and if the farmers of Rock county who are wisely diversifying their work will aim to use only the most improved methods, there is no danger that a profitable market will be wanting for anything they wish to sell.

James Whitecomb Riley, modest man that he is, wants to dodge some of the dialect poems that are credited to him. Almost anybody can write verse when allowed to twist words and murder grammar to help out the rhyme and meter. The country is full of people who are bursting forth in song under this encouragement, and when anything anonymous floats along the discerning editor claps James Whitecomb Riley's name to it and gives it top of column. No wonder Mr. Riley dodges.

People who are looking for seeds from Secretary J. Sterling Morton's bureau need seek no further. All the seeds left when the bureau was abolished, have been planted on the grave of Morton's presidential boom. That grave is one of the most substantial things in the democratic list of assets this year.

There is a lack in our common schools when no attention is paid to pyralism as a means of support. How many Janesville business men could pay an ex-wife $100 a week alimony and marry another costing him as much again? Compared with selling groceries or dry goods the profession of raising lumps on your fellow man is a gold mine.

Another lot of missionaries have been attacked by Chinese. In due time another letter of regret will come from the Chinese government and another statement of complete satisfaction will be made by Secretary Oenley.

Republicans don't need to bother—any one of the six men that have been named for president would draw a full vote of the party and would give a first class administration.

Ex-Governor Campbell has been promised the presidency if he does just as Brice says. Down in Ohio they please children by promising them the moon.

Bountiful crops are not the rule in Europe this year as they are in America. Our big corn and wheat supplies bid fair to be in demand.

The only way to vote for sound money in Kentucky is to vote the republican ticket, and a lot of democrats are prepared to do it.

A lot of democrats who are howling for free silver would be just as strong for gold if they thought it would annoy Cleveland.

The very thought of Whitney as an anti-corporation anti-monopoly candidate makes people laugh.

A Good Suggestion.

Mr. Guzzleton, a jovial resident of Manhattan avenue, happened to be indulging in a social glass with his eldest son, who is a chip of the old block, when the latter, looking over the top of the screen, perceived a younger brother coming directly toward them. Turning to his father, the elder son said:

"Pa, I see Charlie steering right for this saloon. Hadn't you better slide out of the back door before he sees you?"—Texas Siftings.

Little Brother's Theory.

Miss Pearl (at the table)—Oh, have you heard the news? Mr. Goodheart has broken his engagement with Miss Pinkie. He happened into a theater the other evening, and there, in the seat right before him, sat Miss Pinkie, with his former rival. That very night he went home and wrote her a letter, bidding her farewell.

Little Brother—I guess Miss Pinkie had on that big hat.—N. Y. Weekly.

The Old and the New.

The lover of the good old times two names carved deep in wood.
 And all who ran could read, as long as trees thus honored stood.
 The modern lover writes on sand; perhaps that is the reason
 The waves wash out so many combinations every season.

—Truth.

A NIGHT OFF.

"Well, old chap, how did your wife receive you when you got home last night?"

"Wouldn't speak to me."

"Lucky dog. Mine did."—Judy.

The Old Man Won.

"Playing the old game, I see," said the disagreeable father to the charming youth who was making love to his daughter.

"Yes, sir, and hearts are trumps," glibly responded the C. Y.

"I make it clubs," retorted the D. F., and closed the game.—Detroit Free Press.

Fitted for Each Other.

"So there will be nothing to conceal after we are married, dearest, I may as well tell you that I smoke cigarettes, play poker, drink and am rarely home before one o'clock in the morning."

"I am glad to hear you say so. I was afraid we wouldn't be perfect companions."—Life.

Tragedy Up to Date.

"A horse," shouted the tragedian, "my kingdom for a horse."

The attendant bowed.

"We are just out of horse," he answered, apologetically.

With a sneer of discontent, his majesty ordered liver and bacon, with German fried potatoes.—Detroit Tribune.

Have You Noticed It?

A letter from the one you love
 May for a week or more
 About the city idly rove
 In searching for your door.
 But let your tailor send a "dun,"
 And in a manner spy
 It's sure to catch you on the run

 —L. A. W. Bulletin.

The Ruling Passion.

Superintendent of Insane Asylum—What's that woman howling about?

Attendant—She doesn't like her strait jacket.

"Does she want it taken off?"

"Yes. She wants one with puffed sleeves."—Detroit Tribune.

Wrong in the Right Way.

Roddster—I say, old fellow, can you lend us a pair of scales for a few days?

Married Chum—We have a pair, but sorry to say they are out of order. They weigh heavy.

Roddster (excitedly)—The very thing. We're going fishing.—Boston Courier.

Justification.

Jones—Have you heard that Smith is trying to get a separation from his wife?

Brown—No; on what grounds?

Jones—Cruelty. He says that she eats biscuits in bed.—San Francisco Call.

Bad Irons.

Just come—twelve dozen set Mrs. Potts' bad irons; finest in the market; go at 69 cents. This is cheaper than the common irons. Lowell's Annex.

HIS HEAD CUT WITH AN AX

Washington Barriage Injured While Building a Scaffold Up the River.

Washington Barriage cut his head badly with an ax this afternoon while helping build a scaffold for the A. O. U. picnic at Mayflower park. The ax struck a timber and bounded back. Harry Day brought the wounded man to town and Dr. James Gibson took four stitches in his scalp.

ROUT THE INSURGENTS.

Battles Being Won by the Spaniards in Cuba.

Havana, Aug. 22.—According to Spanish official advices Maj. Annibal, at the head of 87 infantry and 24 cavalrymen, belonging to the Camajuani squadron, was recently attacked at Llano by the vanguard, consisting of twenty men, of an insurgent force. The vanguard was commanded by Capt. Gonzales, and the main body of the insurgents, amounting to about 100 men, was commanded by Manuel Napoles, who occupied strong positions. Maj. Annibal repulsed the vanguard and killed Gonzales. He then attacked the main body, captured their positions and dispersed the insurgents, who left nine men killed and seventeen saddled horses. The troops also captured six rifles, a small number of machetes, and a quantity of ammunition. On the side of the troops three men were wounded.

Mineral in Colorado.

Vance Junction, Col., Aug. 22.—Mining men are becoming greatly excited over recent discoveries made by James Blake about five or six miles below this place. It is a contact which can be traced for fully five miles in an easterly direction and carries mineral valued according to assay returns of from $50 to $200 a ton. Already hundreds of prospectors are on the ground and all are of the opinion that it is one of the richest discoveries ever made in this part of Colorado.

Discovers a New Comet.

Echo Mountain Observatory, Cal., Aug. 22.—Lewis Swift, the astronomer, says: "This morning, at 2 o'clock, I discovered a new comet in the constellation of Pisces. Its place was in right ascension 6 hours, 27 minutes, 40 seconds; declination, 5 degrees, 30 minutes. It is very faint, and has no tail. It is moving slowly northeast, parallel with the ecliptic periodic. Nothing is known as to what comet it is, or whether it has been seen before."

Minnie Williams Telegram a Fake.

Providence, R. I., Aug. 22.—The dispatch purporting to have been sent to the lawyers for H. H. Holmes at Philadelphia from this city and signed Minnie R. Williams is generally believed here to have been a fake. No such person is known to have been here.

A REMARKABLE CURE.

A CASE OF PILES OF EIGHTEEN YEARS STANDING.

Cured by the Pyramid Pile Cure.

There are plenty of pile cures which give relief and sometimes cure a mild case of piles, but there is only one which can be depended upon with certainty to cure obstinate, long standing cases, and that is the Pyramid Pile Cure.

Endorsements and testimonials are received daily from men and women whose integrity and reliability are above question and in this connection a letter received from the Rev. Jas. H. Westbrook, of Bowne, Mich., may be of interest to piles sufferers who have sought in vain for a cure. He says:

"I have used the Pyramid Pile Cure and I know that it is all that is claimed for it. I had been troubled with piles more or less for about eighteen years and I had tried other remedies, but the piles grew worse until about ten months ago I used the Pyramid Pile Cure. It gave almost instant relief and I have been free from piles ever since. Rev. Jas. H. Westbrook.

The remedy seems to act equally well in every form of piles, blind, bleeding, protruding or itching. It stops all pain almost immediately, allays irritation and removes constipation, and anyone who has suffered the annoyance and pain of a rectal trouble will appreciate the excellent results which invariably follow the first application of the Pyramid.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is prepared by the Pyramid Drug Co. of Albion, Mich., and for sale by druggists everywhere.

Two sizes, 50 Cents and $1. Sold by all druggists.

Monte Carlo.

MINE HOST JOHNSON—Once more E. C. Johnson stands behind a hotel desk. He is the proprietor of the Park, and even the barn door creaks a welcome to him. Everybody knows the kind of hotel Mr. Johnson runs. He ran the Park long enough to show, and built up a trade that might have been the envy of any landlord. Now that he is back the house is to be renovated throughout, improved in many respects and put in apple pie order for receiving the public. Just as soon as the refitting is completed there will be a sort of house warming, and Landlord Johnson will take a breathing spell and see how it seems to say "Front."

CLAM BAKE—Janesville men joined in a clam bake up the river today. The Imperial band volunteered their services and the Columbia took the party up at 8 o'clock. The commissary department was in charge of Mine Host E. D. Miller and no arrangements were lacking to make the outing a big success.

WERE WED IN A JIFFY AND THEN CAME WAR

QUICK FULTON SERVICES CAUSES PROSECUTION.

Mabel Ellefson Charges Her Husband With Non Support While he Holds That the Wedding Was Forced And Questions Its Validity in Consequence.

Love is said to laugh at locksmiths, and that's all right, but when love laughs at the government of this mighty nation, and the law thereof, trouble comes to the laughter in large alaphathic doses.

Christian Ellefson realizes this, for in a spirit that totally belies his first name, Ellefson dallied with the god of love first and the law afterward.

It was like this:

Christian, for some time back, has resided in the town of Fulton. So did a certain young lady who is now Mrs. Mabel Ellefson. At that time, however, Mabel's name was not Ellefson. Christian wooed her ardently, and finally won her. Talk about the wedding followed, and all was bright. Then Christian began to waver and would have backed out. Persuasion was used on him, however, and one gladsome day last month they were wed. This was on the eighteenth day of July of the calendar year of our Lord, 1895. Things went along swimmingly for three days, and then, Mabel now alleges, Christian "up and went." Whence he went nobody knows and the time of his home coming was equally uncertain.

Mrs. Ellefson Made Complaint.

Mrs. Ellefson waited patiently for Christian to be true to his cognomen and return to the joys of his own fire-side but in this she was most grievously disappointed. Christian had no idea of such a course, apparently, for he immigrated immediately to Evansville and cast his fortunes with Hall's circus where his ears could be gladdened by the inspiring cry of "Hey Rube" and "fine lemo for five." He drove stakes, yanked canvas, punched mules with the show for some time and then came to Janesville, taking up his abode on Cherry street. Then it was that Mabel, also, came to Janesville and laid the foundation for future trouble for the husband of her bosom. She was accompanied by James Clough, the accommodating innkeeper of the Catfish creek village and the authorities were appealed to. After the story had been told, it was decided that Mabel had "cause of action" and her signature was soon attached to a complaint.

Ellefson Is Arrested.

This document set forth the fact that the twin were one, etc.; that Christian was of "sufficient ability" and able to support his lawful wife, but that he neglected to do so. It also said that when he deserted her, Mrs. Ellefson was left in a destitute condition. A warrant was issued on this statement of facts, and Officer Wallace Cochran, who has arrested many a christian before, was given the document. Yesterday afternoon the officer got track of Ellefson and gathered him in. The matter came before Judge Phelps at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Wedding a Forced One.

Then Christian had an inning, and by the consent of the parties the case was adjourned until Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

Christian will not give in without a fight. He is a mild-mannered, good looking young fellow, and claims that his wedding was a forced one. He alleges that Mrs. Clough called him into a room, locked the door and threatened to shoot him. Then Mr. Clough, who is a justice of the peace and a stepfather of Mrs. Ellefson, came in and married them. This service, Ellefson says was brief.

"Clasp your right hands!" You are man and wife!"

That is the kind of ceremony that Justice Clough performed, according to the defendant's story, and he now says he desires to find out whether or not it was a valid one. The statute says, however, that no particular form is necessary, so the question is one that lawyers view with interest. T. S. Nolan is Ellefson's attorney while District Attorney Jackson appears for the prosecution.

WAR OVER A DEAD HORSE.

Revolver Brandished to Emphasize a Claim of Ownership—No Complaint Filed.

A pistol shot startled South Main street Saturday evening, but the affair remained a mystery until reported to the police today. According to the story as the police hear it, Edwin Cady, of Spring Brook, had a horse die at his place and offered to let E. Hanson have it, if he would cart the horse away. Hanson was about to bury the animal when up came Cady and claimed the hide. A free-for-all fight followed and it is claimed that Cady pulled a gun and opened fire. Nobody was hurt. The affair was reported to Chief Acheson in a casual way but no complaint was made.

MONTEREY POWER IS IN LITIGATION

HOW IS THE DISPUTE TO BE DEALT WITH?

Demand For Measuring Appliances Brings Forth a Declaration From the Cotton Mills as to $10,000 Improvements Which Gave an Increased Head of Water.

Under what head shall water be apportioned at Monterey? Judge Bennett is to decide. The cotton mill directors say they spent $10,000 improving the tail race, and that in consequence the woolen mills draw water at seven foot head instead of at four foot. The same improvements give the cotton mills a nine foot head. An effort is being made to compel an apportionment of water on this basis. Cotton mill directors object. They say the increased head is due solely to cotton mill improvements and that to impose a penalty on them is unfair.

The suit now in court is that of Johnathan Ellis, the Janesville Woolen Mills and C. S. Jackman vs. the Janesville Cotton Mills, H. A. Doty Light and Power Co., O. W. Bemis receiver, C. & N. W. R. R., A. P. Lovejoy, G. G. Sutherland, Fenner Kimball, John Thoroughgood and John H. Myers.

F. S. Eldred, John Watson and J. A. Edwards were the witnesses examined today, they appearing for the defendants. An adjournment was taken at noon until tomorrow morning.

Want the Water Measured.

When the water at the lower power was apportioned some years ago a committee of three was given power to put in gates and measuring appliances. G. G. Sutherland, A. P. Lovejoy and C. S. Jackman now compose this committee. The woolen mills owners declare they are not getting their share of the water and have asked to have measuring appliances put in. This has been refused by a majority of the committee. Hence the woolen mills suit, which is brought to determine all controversy. An order is asked for, compelling the use of measuring apparatus according to the schedule. Under the whole network of pleadings lie the question of whether the cotton mills water should be measured at a seven foot or a nine foot head.

B. B. Eldredge and Ruger & Norcross appear for the plaintiffs, Sutherland & Nolan being attorneys for the defendants.

USEFUL HINTS.

Fashionable Hairdressing—How to Clean Black Silk and Wool.

Bandeaux, not much seen here, have had an immense vogue in Paris and are beginning to retire from public favor there. The hair, according to this style, is waved, parted and brought down over the ears, almost or quite concealing them, and is fastened in a coil at the nape of the neck. Some of the most fashionable Parisian women are now beginning to wear the hair higher, however, which is certainly cooler and more convenient in summer.

It is said that black worsted goods and black silk may be freshened by washing them, without soap, in water in which ivy leaves have been boiled for an hour. The decoction must be stronger for black silk than for wool, and the silk should be cleansed with a sponge and a soft brush. The goods are afterward rinsed in clear water and pressed while still damp. Ribbons, whether silk or velvet, may also be rejuvenated by moistening them with rum and ironing them before they are dry. Of course it does not do to press velvet ribbon, but it may be ironed by standing a warm flatiron on the square end and drawing the satin face of the ribbon across the bottom of the iron.

Linens, eminently fashionable this summer, are beautiful in texture and pattern and lovely to look at in the piece, but made up into gowns they are not so satisfactory as cotton goods. They wilt and crumple with extraordinary rapidity and require to be laundered constantly in order to preserve any crispness or freshness. Even heavy linen duck shares in this disability, and really looks less well than pique at half the cost.

The illustration shows a seaside gown having a skirt of beige and white plaid with red threads, cut with ample godets. The jacket bodice is of plain beige cloth and has a basque rippled behind and pointed in front. It is adorned with revers and collar and has a plaited chemisette of rose batiste. A plain linen collar is worn with a red scarf. The hat is of black straw trimmed with red flowers and red and black broche ribbon. JUDIC CHOLLET.

FASHIONABLE NOVELTIES.

Plain Flaring Skirts Are Likely to Remain in Favor.

Among the novel fancies that graft themselves upon the general mode a particularly charming one is that of a small square decolletage outlined and emphasized by a narrow, flat band of velvet, of some dark color or black when the gown is of a light tone. An equal contrast is obtained by putting light ribbon on a dark corsage, but the effect is not so satisfactory. When the blouse or bodice is thus cut down, with judgment, neither too much nor too little, it is exceedingly becoming to the neck. This caprice of fashion fortunately coincides with the heat of the season, a reasonable state of things which seldom obtains in the realm of fashion, and which would probably not exist now were this not a time of revivals and did not the square decolletage appear to us in a resurrectionary light. It does not replace other fancies, however, and by no means drives out the large ruffles, draped collars and wide ribbons tied at the nape of the neck which have enjoyed so great a popularity this summer.

All indications are toward a continuance in favor of the plain flaring skirt, with its slight trimming and the elaboration of the bodice in contrast. Ingenuity is exhausting itself in devising new blouse arrangements and bodice trimmings, the familiar laces, guipures, ribbons, knots and enoux being combined in every possible way.

Already autumn costumes are occupying the thoughts of fashionable dressmakers and wearers. Cloth promises to occupy an important place among materials, white cloth in particular, while light beige, mastic, sable and similar tints will share in popularity. The cloth costume complete will include an outside jacket or small cape to match the gown, the whole costume to be finished with stitching and buttons.

A picture is given of a gown of pale green crepon. The bodice skirt has two small straps at the hips, of rose silk embroidered with pearl. The blouse bodice has a slight square decolletage outlined with embroidered rose bands, which also form epaulets over the shoulder, retaining flounces of white lace. The balloon demilaines and wide belt are of rose liberty satin. JUDIC CHOLLET.

ECZEMA

From early childhood until I was grown my family spent a fortune trying to cure me of this disease. I visited Hot Springs and was treated by the best medical men, but was not benefited. When all things had failed I determined to try S.S.S., and in four months was entirely cured. The terrible eczema was gone, not a sign of it left. My general health built up, and I have never had any return of the disease. I have often recommended S.S.S. and have never yet known a failure to cure.

Narcoti-Cure

CURES THE TOBACCO HABIT IN 4 TO 10 DAYS OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Narcoti-Cure is the only remedy in the world that acts directly on the nerves and drives the nicotine from the system in from ten days. It leaves the patient in better health than before taking, and is warranted free from all injurious ingredients.

Narcoti-Cure is popular because it allows the patient to use all the tobacco he wants while under treatment, or until the "craving" and "hankering" are gone. It is then no sacrifice to throw away tobacco forever.

Narcoti-Cure is sold at the uniform price of $5 a bottle, and one bottle cures.

Money refunded if a cure is not effected when taken according to directions.

For 46 Years, and Was Cured by Narcoti-Cure.

AMHERST, Mass., Feb. 8, 1895. The Narcoti Chemical Co., Springfield, Mass.

Gentlemen:—Replying to yours of the 1st would say that I have used tobacco for 46 years and of late have consumed a 10 cent plug a day, besides smoking considerably. I commenced to use tobacco when I was only 11 years old, and have never been able to give up the habit until I took Narcoti-Cure, although I have tried other so-called remedies without effect. After using your remedy four days all "hankering" for chewing disappeared and in four days more smoking became unpleasant. I have no further desire for the weed, and experienced no bad effects, whatever. I am gaining flesh, and feel better than I have for a long time. To all who wish to be free from the tobacco habit I would say use Narcoti-Cure.

Yours truly, W. N. WAITE.

A Severe Test of Beauty.

"You say," murmured Genevieve, sweetly, "that you were led to love me when you first saw me in bloomers?"

"Quite right," said Algernon, as he pressed her to his bosom. "I knew that if you didn't look like very much of a fright in bloomers you must be very beautiful."—Chicago Record.

She Was Talkative.

"Oh, John," said Mrs. Smith, tearfully, "ma has cut her thumb dreadfully and the doctor thinks there is danger of lockjaw."

"He needn't be afraid of that," replied Smith, sarcastically; "she never gives her jaws a chance to lock."—Texas Siftings.

His Way.

"Was your husband good to you during your long illness?" inquired the kind lady who was making a charity call.

"Oh, yes, indeed, ma'am!" replied the poor woman; "as good as could be—he was more like a friend than a husband."—Puck.

A Word of Warning.

Young man, if you've two sweethearts, one of whom you mean to wed.

Oh! change your mind, we pray you; take the other one instead.

We tell you this in kindness, for your own contentment, brother.

For mind, if you wed one of them, You'll wish you'd wed the other.

—L. A. W. Bulletin.

A Painful Possibility.

Will—if you are so much in love with that little angel, why don't you propose to her?

Gus (moodily)—I have seen both her father and mother, and I can't be sure that she won't grow to look like one or the other of them.—N. Y. Weekly.

A Good Guess.

"Papa!"

"What is it, Johnny?"

"I read a poem in my school reader which spoke of 'dogs of high degree.'"

"Well?"

"Papa, does that mean Skye terriers?" — Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegram.

A Basis to Work On.

"I see that John's speakin' on the financial question."

"Oh, yes!"

"What's the old man doin'?"

"Furnishin' the finances."—Chicago Herald.

The Way You Look at It.

"I am very sorry, Karl, you didn't admire my new frock. Everybody says it is charming."

"Your friends, my dear, pay you compliments. I pay your bills."—Lustige Blaetter.

Sad Companions.

Why do those two not smile at all?
Why lack they so in joy?
One wants to tell about baseball;
The other of his boy.

Labor Troubles.

Plumber—Hello, Snip! Where are the other eight of you?

Tailor—I don't know. I wish they were here. I'd like to see if the nine of us could make a man out of a plumber.—Chicago Tribune.

Folly.

Folly, when 'tis chronic, is a terrible disease. But it must, I am persuaded, be quite devoid of pain.

For everyone who has it seems perfectly at ease—

So many are afflicted, and so very few complain!

A Fine Treat.
